Def. Doc. 682

Excerpt from "TEN YEARS IN JAPAN" by Joseph Grew, former United States Ambassador to Japan

Page 327 -- September 1, 1940

August was a month of building up the "new structure" in Japan under the Konoye Government.

. . . . .

The "new structure" is going ahead fast and Japan is rapidly becoming a regimented nation, although in its main outlines this regimentation cannot be said to be either Fascism or Nazism. It is very far from either. There is to be no single political party, as in Italy and Germany, but rather an absence of all parties, the whole country being held together in individual loyalty to the Emperor.
